AGAIN WE WELCOME Fr. Gerry Thornton who will be offering our Masses for us this weekend.

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION OF OUR LADY - With Mary our faith proclaims that the Lord never forgot His promises to His people, that he reverses the order of this world, that He will do great things for us and remain faithful to His people. In the face of the indifference of the world we wait in joyful hope, God will never disappoint us. Mary's humble life of faith is crowned in her entry, body and soul, into the fullness of God's life. Today's feast assures us that not only will our faith and our hope not be disappointed, but will be fulfilled beyond all our expectations.

CHURCH PAINTING - The outside painting of the church is now completed. Also you will notice the new painting of maroon bands accommodating the Stations of the Cross, plus the higher level painting of each side of the sanctuary. We already receiving complimentary comments from the public about the outside of the church and the new look of the tower.
