THE NEW TRANSLATION - whose idea was it anyway?

Until the early 1960s Mass was celebrated in Latin throughout the world. Wherever you happened to be on Sunday the Mass would be celebrated in the language you were used to. At the Second Vatican Council in the early 1960s, it was agreed that Mass could be said in the language of the country in which it was being celebrated. There would be no change to the Mass itself, just the language being used. This would enable us to understand more fully what was being said and help us to participate more fully. An English translation was made available as quickly as possible, but it was intended to be temporary. A more considered translation would be issued later, hopefully in about 5 years. Some 40 years has since passed! This translation has at last been agreed by Rome and we will begin using it in our parishes this September. If you would like to know more about the liturgy document issued by the Second Vatican Council see:-

Thought for the week:
God has not called us to see through each other,
But to see each other through.
